Elected Member Directors (Trustees) who are not required to stand for re-election in 2023:

Stewart Corbett	Stewart and his wife moved to Dunblane in 2015 to be closer to family and friends. Prior to retiring in 2016 his career as a professional engineer was spent in nuclear power station operation holding several positions in station and corporate management. His career took him to Hunterston, Torness, Dungeness, Gloucester and Pennsylvania, USA. Following a successful time as an operations engineer, Stewart undertook management positions including corporate risk management, outage management, station acquisition and critical project management. Stewart is an active volunteer with DDT, Loch Lomond and Trossachs National Trust and National Trust Scotland.

	He has also recently become a member of Dunblane Community Council.
Malcolm Dougall	Malcolm moved to Dunblane with his family in 1976. He is currently Chair of DDT (Projects) Limited and has been a Director of that company since its formation in December 2009. He originally supervised the construction phase of the Riverview building as DDT's representative and has subsequently been closely involved with the general management of the building. Malcolm, until he retired, was a Chartered Quantity Surveyor but worked in the contracting side of the industry for the majority of his career. He worked in Scotland with both medium sized and national contractors in general contracting and for a time in the oil & gas industry. He moved overseas in 1985 to work in the Middle and Far East based for the most part in Hong Kong where he worked for international contractors on major infrastructure and land reclamation projects. He latterly worked as a Consultant in Arbitrations, Mediations and Litigations. Malcolm and his family returned to Dunblane in 2006.
Ian Gill	DDT Treasurer and Chair of Braeport Management Committee. Ian has lived in Dunblane since 2006, having returned to Scotland after spending 30 years in International Development both overseas and in London. Until recently he ran his own HR consultancy business operating in Africa and emerging markets. He is a pension scheme Trustee.
Paul Nelson	Director of DDT (Projects) Ltd and Chair of Dementia Friendly Dunblane. Paul has lived in Dunblane for more than 30 years. He is a former Managing and Financial Director of medium sized Scottish companies. He has an active involvement in numerous community organisations, both local and national including as a member of the executive of Scottish Motor Trade Association and Scottish Engineering, and as a former Stirling Councillor. He is Treasurer of Scottish Autism and a volunteer at the Braeport Memory Café.
Anita Smiley	DDT Vice Chair. Anita has lived in Dunblane for more than 30 years and has worked as a teacher in local secondary schools. Latterly she was a service manager in Stirling Council's children's services.
Scott Williamson	Scott worked in the Scottish IT industry for 30 years before retiring. He and his wife moved to Dunblane in 2022 and both of them like to get involved in the DDT, its working groups, and other local community organisations and activities. Scott represents Dunblane in Bloom and the Paths Group on the Board and is a member of the Finance Committee.
